Weather Control Weapons Behind California And World Disasters

The situation is from all reports the wild fires that hit California were caused by direct energy weapons that are used with weather control technology. The information below will show the reality of this technology does exist and the weather situation in California is artificially created and did not conform to natural laws of weather science that would normally bring about such weather situation. Many witnesses in California report seeing phenomena in the sky that is documented to be associated with weather control technology. This is also happening not just in California but elsewhere around the world such as Greece and Sweden where also attacked with Direct Energy Weapons. And in the same way. The American government used weather control during the Vietnam war to cause monsoon's to flood regions populated by the Viet Con forces. The global heat waves are also being caused by this along with the flooding's and strange weather in general. Even hail storms in summer.

Note there is a direct attempt to censor any and all information about this by the Free Press.

The enemy is causing these disasters and insane weather to attempt to help bring about their Biblical prophecies in the mass mind of the end times. They are doing this while pushing for a greater world war. This is being done as a mass ritual to generate energy in the mass mind they can then program and direct for their world government program. If one notes the "Black Death" in Medieval Europe which wiped out a large part of the population was brought about by artificial means as well. Many reports that survive from the time state seeing hovering lights in the sky and then a fog would roll in and everyone would get sick with this. One city survived because they saw the lights in the sky and the mist rolled in. They started large bon fires in the city to burn out the mist because they knew what this meant because it was always happened when the plague showed up. Others obvious started to do this and it reduced the effects. Others stated they saw strangely dressed beings spraying something on the crops and the air and then everyone got sick with this. Some reported these beings coming in flying craft. Keep in mind reports have stated they found the remains of an enemy Grey in the Vatican buried under the floor of an ancient chapel in Vatican City. Other reports from inside the Vatican mention there is a cabal of these Reptilian Greys there all the time directing things.

The Black Death was happening as the enemy program of Christianity was starting to lose control in the population. The mass hysteria and fear this caused in the public created a fundamentalist movement that consider this the end times and allowed the enemy to keep control of the population.

In Nuremberg in 1561 an ariel dog fight between UFO ships was recorded by the members of the city they even created images of it:

There are also many painting and even some historical records documenting UFO sightings during the Black Death as well. What else are the same hovering lights. The enemy has been at this for awhile.

With the current events.

Many people have also reported that laser weapons are being used from the air. Numerous video's have documented this happening.

The situation is this technology does exist:

"Solaren Corp. is based in Manhattan Beach, CA. They holds two patents for transmitting microwave directed energy from space to pinpoint locations on earth.

1 – Under patent US7612284B2 , a solar-powered satellite will generate a powerful microwave radio frequency beam focused on an array of collector antennas where it will be transformed to electrical power supplied to PG&E (Pacific Gas and Electric)

2- Under patent US20110204159A1, a solar-powered satellite will generate a powerful microwave radio frequency beam to control the weather by heating deployments of aluminum oxide or other conductive particulates, sprayed from aircraft. The patent describes methods of steering and changing the intensity of a hurricane.

The Guardian: It was reported on April 16, 2009 that a California solar energy firm – Solaren – plans to construct “orbiting solar farms” that will harvest electricity in space. Each “farm” would be a set of solar panels in outer space that would beam enough clean energy back to Earth to power half a million homes. Solaren’s specific plans (Patent US7612284B2) are to put an array of solar panels around 22,000 miles above the earth’s equator using existing rocket technology and then convert the power generated into microwave radio-frequency transmissions. The microwaves would be beamed back down to antennae in Fresno, California and then converted into electricity and fed into the PG&E power grid. Mirrors would focus sunlight on solar cells, generating electrical power. The electricity would be converted into microwaves suitable for transmitting through Earth’s atmosphere at frequencies of 2.45 or 5.8 GHz. For comparison, 2.45 GHz is the same frequency as your kitchen microwave, Wi-Fi, Blue tooth etc. (More)

An interesting coincidence involves what could be called ‘Russian collusion’. On August 12, 2016 the Russian Federation’s Federal Service for Intellectual Property announced the issuance of a key Space Solar Power (SSP) system patent to Solaren Corporation. This suggests that Russia is developing – or has already deployed an SSP and that Solaren required technical help from Russia in order to contract service to PG&E.

The coincidence continues when a 2011 email from a PG&E official, Brian K Cherry, announced the antenna receptor site would be moved from the Mojave desert to Sebastopol."

The Jewish elites know they are losing their control on the world and they want to bring about their self created prophecy of the end times which ends with a global joouclear war that destroys the Gentile nations and out of the ashes of they want to create their Messiah Kingdom of a one world government. If they don't get this sooner then later they know they are fooked.

And now their using Weather Control Weapons to radicalize the weather across the globe?
Because their losing control of Us through Christianity and Islam right?

Its well known and documented in history the Jooz got caught red handed throwing plague bodies into the Gentile water supplies. This is one reason so many pogroms against jooz happened around this time. The jooz mention one of their jooz got the plague and purposely went to as many cities and towns it could to spread it to as many of the Gentiles as possible. There the jooz is helping their alien masters.

I did an article on Japan and the information showed HAARP activity was in use at the time in the region of the tidal wave that hit Japan. Also it seems the reactors were sabotaged by within the systems that caused the melt down and some traced this back to an Israeli company. After the disaster the international jooz banking stepped in and tried to get a debt lending control over Japan. The Japanese are not stupid People and they have been one of the biggest opponents the Jooz have had.
